 For Coroner, W. B. Pennington.

A Commercial Club has been organized at Brandenburg.

The Kentucky Legislature will probably take another jump to Cincinnati.

Latest advices from Washington are that there is no hope for Mr. Tanbush. His death is only a question of a very few hours.

John Reel, a Tennessee negro, while plowing in a field eight miles north Nashville, turned up a jug containing $100 in gold.

William Jenkins, the thirteen-year-old Laurel county boy, who was recently sent to the penitentiary under sentence of one year for stealing a pair of candy, has been pardoned by Governor Barker.

Mr. C. C. Givens, of the Owensboro Inquirer, has announced himself as a full fledged candidate for congress in the Second district. His handling qualities count for anything. Mr. Givens will surely get there.

The severe cold weather of the past few days, has doubtless killed most of the fruit trees. The peaches are about all killed and probably all of the plums and pears of the early variety. The apple crop will not be damaged much, as it is not so early as the other fruits.

Keep your shirt on, Mr. Tate, and keep your trousers in jail. As long as you continue to let them out the News will continue to publish the tale. Jailers have you have kept them in and had no better facilities for doing it than you have. Do your duty as jailer, and the News will be content to say about you.

Six years ago the Legislature passed a law that in all towns and cities of over one hundred inhabitants, the streets should be paved with stone. A few years later the act was extended to include all towns of 1,000 or more inhabitants. A bill is now pending to extend the provisions of the act to all incorporated towns in the State.

The News has it from reliable authority that Mr. Slaton did assist in the capture and return of the prisoners that escaped from the Brandenburg jail last week, notwithstanding Mr. Plate denies it. But it doesn't matter if he did assist in the capture, they got out of Mr. Plate's responsible. Whether it was through carelessness or some of the substitutes we know not, but we do know that he was not entirely blameless in some other instances.

Capt. D. T. Bigh, the famous old detective of Louisville, is dead. It will be doubtless many years before this State will claim another man who will be so much feared by the law breakers as was Captain Bigh. He made a grand record as a detective and was always a terror to the crooks and in out of this State. It is sad to hear that from a little child he hadly knew what fear meant.

The editor of the Grayson Gazette is fearful indeed, that the Democracy of the county will be moved out of the county by Mr. Cunningham. The Republican candidate for County Court Clerk, there is no occasion for alarm. We don't know how the Democrats are in the habit of voting in Grayson, but here the popularity of a Republican doesn't count for much among Democrats, at an election. They vote for the nominee right along.

The Grand list distribution, which the News will make among the subscribers some time during the year will probably take place in Fisher's Hall. All the arrangements have been made yet, but we propose one day that things shall be lively in this town. We will even have a body to come, old and young to see the thing off. All the prizes mentioned will be given away, and all who want everybody to come and see how it is done. Remember, every new subscriber gets a ticket.

We fear John Monarch will have a hard task to beat in the County Clerk's race of Breckinridge county. Owen Cunningham is no doubt the strongest man the Republicans could have put up, but we have known him for many years and know him to be a better. The Democrats will not give up their duty and see that John Monarch gets every Democratic vote in the county.

You need not be uneasy, Mr. Cunningham, it is true, is quite popular with his friends, but on the other hand, he is not so popular with the Republicans than John Monarch is among the Democrats. In his race for the nomination, Mr. Monarch will have more votes than for an average competitor could have been found in the county, thus demonstrating clearly his popularity and strength among Democrats. He will poll the full Democratic vote of the county, which insures his election in August.

J. A. Witt is selling goods at Wheeler prices.

Mr. J. C. Porter, Cloverport, was in town Monday.

Mr. Jeff Jolly, Bewleyville, was in town Monday.

Dr. P. W. Foote, Bewleyville, was in town Monday.

Mr. Eliza Gardner, Union Star, was in town Monday.

Miss Ellen Potts is visiting her mother at Bewleyville.

Mr. Bion Jolly has a government position in Louisville.

Mrs. James Beard is quite ill at her home near this place.

Rev. Armstrong will preach at the Baptist church Friday night.

That big excursion that's going up the road the 10th Sunday is getting ready.

Shakespeare's complete works given away Beard & Beeler. Call and see them.

Goods have been knocked down to bottom prices at Witt's. Now is your time to buy.

W. K. Withers shipped fourteen hog heads of tobacco from Hardinsburg last week.

Miss Maggie Smith went to Bewleyville last Saturday to take charge of the Bethel school.

Plant bed canna's, northern seed and all kinds of farm and garden seeds at Beard & Beeler.

Mr. Ken Warren and wife and W. J. Piggott and wife, Bewleyville, were visiting here Sunday.

It is reported that the Kickapoo Indian Medicine Company will be in town some time this week.

Mr. Andrew Delemon and Mrs. Judith Delemon and her daughter, Annie, went to Louisville Monday.

Mr. Horace Allen has gone to Utah to accept a good salary.

There is a new store house and tobacco warehouse going up at Hardinsburg's station.

Mr. P. W. Jolly went to Owensboro Monday.

He has received an appointment as store keeper in the revenue service.

Mrs. Ella McGary, of New Albany, Ind., has been in town the past week visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Sim McGary.

The passenger train now goes as far down on the L. & H. W. as Deans station. Business is pretty lively along the road.

I have two good mules and one two horse wagon for sale. Terms reasonable.

Mr. John Slaton accidentally shot his leg through the hand with a pistol last Sunday. The wound was only a slight one.

Mr. Peyton Henderson, who died a couple of weeks ago, appointed his wife and son, F. H. Henderson, executors of his last will.

Mr. Horace Bland and Ed Miller have gone to Louisville to buy goods. They will open a store at Jolly, the new station on the L. H. & W.

A number of new names have been added to the News subscription list here.

The parties want a chance at those prizes to be given away.

Judge Addison has about closed the contract with a firm at Lafayette, Ind., for an iron fence for the court house at a cost of $253. The work will begin in a very short time.

Mr. Morris Ekridge is making himself quite popular among the little folks.

He gave another entertainment of magic lantern views at his residence Monday night which was very entertaining.

President B. F. Beard has called a meeting of the directors of the Louisville, Hardinsburg and Western Railway Company, to meet at the office of the L. H. & W. Co., at 2 o'clock p. m.

Mr. Charley Mattingly went to Owensboro Monday. He has been given a place as store keeper in this district.

Having accepted the Republican nomination for County Judge, he is understood about accepting a position in the revenue service. However it is thought he will take the latter place.

Henderson's station on the L. H. & W. promises to be a lively business point on the road.

Mr. Withers is putting up a store house there. Mr. Charley Durham a tobacco warehouse.

Other buildings are going up, and the good country surrounding it will make it an important point on the road.

As the L. H. & W. road near completion, its business status assumes quite an interesting phase.

President Beard has just published a call for a meeting of the board of directors, who were not long since ousted by a judgment of Judge Toney's court, and as there is another set of directors claiming to have an existence, the situation is a very interesting one.

By virtue of that judgment, the situation is a very interesting one.

The least of it. Just which of them is a legally constituted body is the question.

And there are $6000 worth of bonds undisposed of. Truly it is got into a devil of a twist somehow.

BRANDENBURG, KY.

Mr. J. W. Lewis was in the city last week.

Mr. E. H. Shellman was in Louisville last week.

Mr. C. P. Babbage was in town last Wednesday.

Mr. J. C. Ashcraft went to Louisville last Saturday.

Mr. Dick Smith, of Wolf Creek, was in town last Thursday.

Mrs. Cal. Hendricks, Long Branch, went to Louisville Monday.

Mr. G. G. Moorman has returned from a business trip down the river.

The peach crop is thought to be killed by the cold snap of last week.

Mr. Alzo Moreman and son, Joe, went to Louisville last Friday.

Mr. Cal. Hendricks runs a ferry from his landing to Tobacco Landing.

Mrs. A. Ditto, Jr., Long Branch, was in Louisville a few days last week.

The Rock Gas Co. has thrown up several of its leases held on the hill places.

The Owings said there were a good many wild geese on the creek last week, the day of the snow storm.

Mr. Geo. Yeakel is back at his store, after an absence of several weeks with his family at Louisville.

R. H. Nevitt bought a nice young gelding from Tom McDonald and John Jenkins a few days ago.

Miss Minnie Phillips and Lillie J. Ditto left Long Branch Monday for Lebanon, Ky. Miss Phillips' home.

Miss Fannie Weikert returned home Tuesday, after several days visit to Miss Geo. Ricksart, Long Branch.

Eighteen passengers got on the train at Squire Ditto's place last week with the bridal party, Mr. and Mrs. Rees.

The boys had some nice sport above the creek during the high water, catching rabbits with Mr. Ricksart's greyhound.

Our popular Commonweal's attorney, Chappie Wadley, left for Edmonson county last Thursday to attend court.

During the snow storm last week Squire Ditto's farm was lured with wild geese more than have been seen for several years.

Mr. Editor, is your free column open to the farmers to the county also? [Yes, sir; to all farmers who are regular subscribers.—E.]

Last Wednesday was more winter than has been any other day in the season.

A continuous hard snow all day and a stiff wind.

W. H. Ditto came home from Cloverport last week, where he has been engaged in harness making with B. F. and D. S. Ricksart.

John Starks got his bond filed, and so it is papers off last week for approval.

The howling will soon take place if his bond is accepted.

Judge Johnnie Noonan, the old reliable town politician, was here last week.

He says he has been on the road for twenty-seven years.

Misses Minnie Phillips, Lebanon, and Emma Eggle, Stephensport, were the guests of Miss Lillie Ditto, Long Branch, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The work train has been at Weldon a week, working out the McGehee cut. The waste dirt is being used to fill up the treble in front of Squire Ditto's house.

J. S. Ditto started out on the road to travel for Krigger, Furniture City, last week.

This is J. S. Ditto's first trip out and may be succeeded as a good salesman.

H. C. Woodson handles the handsome pair of black geldings in this county. He purchased them of Judge Woolfolk for $100. They are too fine for a street car and may be succeeded as a good salesman.

Mr. Jack Lananah's brother from Indianapolis, Ind., has been spending a few days with him at Long Branch. Mr. Lananah is connected with the Rock Gas Co.

The News has three times the circulation of this office that it had five months ago. We trust that we can increase it to three times what it is now, in the next six months.

Several passengers from Indiana got on the train at Long Branch Sunday. It was the first time since the McGehee cut.

No road does quite a good passenger business at this point.

Messrs. Livers and Nevitt closed out their of their mules last week to R. H. Edelen, of Lebanon, Ky., and shipped twenty head to Louisville last week.

No doubt but that these gentlemen feel the finest stable of mules that has been handled here for many years.

D. C. Terrence's, the popular life insurance agent, has been in town the past week.

The papers on Wm. Ditto, Sr., deceased's life, for collection. Mr. Ditto was carrying an insurance of between seven and eight thousand dollars, which will add greatly to the benefit of his unfortunate family.

Messrs. Judge Woolfolk, A. W. Moreman, W. H. Richardson and O. C. Richardson went to Louisville last Thursday to commit to the Convention.

They are to confer with them in regard to the development of this county's many natural resources.

Hon. A. W. Moreman and J. W. Lewis are spoken of as prospective candidates for the Constitutional Convention.

Miss Julia B. Ditto to Mr. Ned Rees last Tuesday, expressed themselves as having spent a delightful evening at the hotel.

A charming bride, and her many friends had to give her up, but such is life, and many good wishes attend her and her husband, who was well known here.

Mrs. Rees were present and met many warm friends. It was the pleasure of your correspondent to entertain them, and it was his pleasure last fall to spend a few delightful days at their hospitable home, while on a visit to the State fair at Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. E. L. Clark is visiting relatives in Canaan.
J. W. Dean, Jr., of Rock Vale, was in the city Friday.
Henry Harned came down from Hardinburg Sunday.
Thos. D. Ireland, of Skillman, was in the city Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Pierce visited Owensboro this week.
Mr. J. E. Monarch, of Hardinburg, was in town last week.
Mr. Owen Cunningham, of Union Star, was in town several days last week.
Mrs. C. W. Moorman and Miss Katie Bower went up to hear Patti last week.
Mrs. Robt. Smith, of Meade county, is visiting in S. S. Richmond.
Dr. A. A. Shanks was one of those from this place, who heard Patti last week.
Chas. Mattingly and G. P. Jolly, of Hardinburg, went to Owensboro Monday.
Miss Fannie Hord, of Holt, was the guest of Miss Mary Allen several days this week.
Mr. J. D. Brasher, of Owensboro, left that city Monday night, for Las Vegas, New Mexico.
Mr. Wm. McCullough, of Short Creek, was here last week attending the Holcomb meeting.
Mrs. W. D. Smith and sons, Jesse and Robt., of Meade county, are visiting Mr. H. S. Wiley.
Mr. J. C. DeHaven, of Hardinburg, was in town last week and secured a ticket in the News' Grand Gift Distribution.
Mr. Clark, of Canaan, Ind., is here on a visit to his son, Edward, who is back-logged for the Cincinnati Coal & Coke Co.
Miss Esther Haynes, of Stephensport, Ky., after a pleasant visit to the Misses Goldstein, returned home yesterday.
Mr. Lewis Goldstein, after a fortnight's visit to his family in the city, returned yesterday to his home in Stephensport—Henderson Journal.
Miss Annie Hamilton, of Georgetown, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. Lightfoot, for several weeks, has had a very severe attack of grippe. She is now able to be out again.
Miss Little Cooper, who has been called away from her school on account of sickness at home for several weeks, returned yesterday by way of Victoria. She had to take a cross-tie ticket from the latter place.
Miss Little Hill, who has been visiting the family of her uncle, Conrad McKel, returned to her home in Meade county last Thursday, accompanied by her cousin, Robert McKel—Hawesville Plaindealer.
Mr. J. H. Hucho, foreman of Sulzer's Tailoring Department, will visit Cloverport again about March 12 to 15. He will carry with him a line of sample representing a stock of piece goods, which compares all the standard and fancy styles produced this season. He will be pleased to meet you at our store at the above date and receive your order.—J. F. Sulzer & Bro.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

New Prints at Sulzer's.
No truss either way yesterday.
The railroads all over the country are having trouble.
Just arrived, a big line of gent's fine shoes.—Sulzer's.
Remember the Commercial club meeting this evening.
Just from factory, an elegant line of new suits.—Sulzer's.
Don't fail to meet with the Commercial Club today at 4 p. m.
Born, to the wife of Mr. John Burke, of Addison, March 6th—a son.
Mr. L. L. Smith and wife have gone to bookkeeping in Owensboro.
Bob Pierce is the happy father of another son, born March 6th.
The City Council has decided to build a jail and court room. Bids for the work are now in order.
Mr. G. P. Jolly has filled his bond as gauger, and went to Owensboro Monday to get an assignment.
The press for the Cloverport Times arrived here Monday. The first issue will come out next Saturday.
Squire Wm. Smith, father of Dr. F. M. Smith, of this city, died at his home in the Forts of Rock, Pa.
The Kirkwood Medicine Company has been giving some good entertainments at Fisher's hall during the week.
The section men and those on the work train were at work all of Monday night and Tuesday clearing the track.
The News is not alone in saying that John Shalom will be the next jailer. Every Democrat in the county says so.
The County Court ought to furnish Jailer Pate with better padlocks. His mighty thimble to lay it on to the padlocks.
The oldest habitation in this county, where the winter came in spring and summer, was as experienced in 1816, when all the winter came in spring and summer.
Mr. Richardson has introduced a bill in the house to change the voting place in District No. 2, Meade county, from Meadeville to Canaan.
The Directors of the Tax and White Sulphur Springs Co. will hold a meeting in Louisville this week to perfect arrangements for improving the springs.
We copy an article from the Georgetown Times giving some points on the use of an ice plant. It seems to be that a plant of this size could be made to pay in this city.
Mr. D. W. Sloan, on account of bad roads, has been unable to supply his trade here with his coal, but, always late in the season of his customers, has imported several barges of Cannon coal.
P. Blaser, a contractor on the L. & H. W. railroad, has finished his work on that road and has secured a contract for fifteen miles of grading on the Bowling Green, Leitchfield and Falls of Rough. He will commence work about the 1st of April.
A petition signed by the citizens of this magisterial district was forwarded to our representative in Frankfort, asking the Legislature to annex this district from the general road tax. A special act will be passed for this district for road improvement.
The miner is regarded by some to be a tough citizen, but this may be true when he is in the mine, but when he is out of the mine, he is a tenderhearted and kind man, as was revealed this week in Illinois, when four of them fell down a shaft eighty feet and still live.—Hartington Bee.
The west bound passenger train due here Monday night did not arrive here until we went to press last night. The delay was caused by a land slide about two miles east of this city. The whole face of the earth for about 200 feet up there seems to be trying to push itself into the river.
Mr. Chas. Mattingly, Republican candidate for Judge of this county, passed through this city Monday, enroute to Owensboro. Mr. Mattingly has an appointment for gauger, and says if he gets an assignment he will not make the race. So it is quite likely the g. p. will have to bring in another horse to be slaughtered next August.
The meeting is still in progress at the Elm Street Methodist church. There doesn't seem to be much out there, but it is generally conceded that there is much good being done. Everybody is well pleased with Mr. Holcomb. His sermons are so simple and his manner so earnest that one could not but feel that a religious life is the best. Mr. Holcomb is a living example of the power and good there is in religion. The meetings are well attended and the interest seems to be increasing. They will continue through the week and possibly through next week. Several additions have been made to the church.

CHARLIE BEARD, OF HARDINBURG, MAKES A NARROW ESCAPE.

A Policeman Takes Him for Will Pope, the Absconding Thief.
"That's Will Pope sure," exclaimed the station agent at Louisville last Thursday, as Charlie Beard, of Hardinburg, walked into the Seventh Street depot, grip in hand. Immediately all eyes were turned on the supposed noted bank robber, and a dozen voices chimed in "That's him."
Detective Hooper was seen in the back ground, keenly taking observation, as his quick eye took him in from head to foot. The crowd was becoming deeply excited and soon a hundred persons were gathered about our Charlie. By this time, the largely observed man began to show signs of I-don't-understand-this-business-annoyance, and it was hard to tell whether he was mad or scared. Things were fast approaching a climax, when Horace Allen came along, hurrying at a two-forty gait to the train. Charlie yelled out, "Horace!" and Horace turned and made up to see what was going on. Finding his old friend and schoolmate in a predicament of some sort, he soon took in the situation, and cried out, "I know this man—this is Charlie Beard, of Hardinburg, a son of B. F. Beard, the well-known merchant. It's Will Pope at all."
One fellow yelled out loud enough to be heard in Jeffersonville, "Oh! that is too thin, young man. Take him too. He's the fellow that's been running with Pope and got part of the swag." The crowd vociferously adopted the theory, and Hooper seemed about to scoop in the boys. Just then Judge A. Murray, of this city, came along for the purpose of taking the train. The Judge's attention was at once arrested, and seeing the boys in evidently bad shape, inquired as to what was the matter. Soon ascertaining the situation, he told the crowd, detectives and all, that Mr. Beard was not Pope, and that Horace Allen was not in the habit of running with Pope or anybody else. That he had known both the trouble and the date of their respective births, and was proceeding to become very indignant, when another fellow over on the side of the crowd belched out in tones more loud than polite "And who the h—l are you?" This was too much for the already irate gentleman, and he manifested some disposition to let people know he would show them "who he was."
After considerable further prodding, as the Frenchman would say, the crowd reluctantly concluded it was not much of a find after all, and the young men were permitted to board the train. Detective Hooper for some reason or other, possibly not entirely satisfied that Charlie was not the much wanted Pope, came down the road, and finally got off at some station, to send his way back to Louisville empty handed.

In making an inspection of the records that B. B. B. (Bottles) had made, with Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., will cure blood poisons in its worst phases, even when all other treatment fails.
A. P. Brown, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had twenty-four running sores on one leg and six on the other, and they greatly troubled me. I tried every remedy I could find, but with little hope I finally got on the streets of Atlanta, and got a bottle of B. B. B. I used it as directed, and my sores were soon healed. I kept using it until I had had sixteen sores, and all the blood poisons and all other ailments were cured. I had been a sufferer from blood poisons for many years, and finally the disease began eating my life bones. My home doctor said I must never be cured, but I had used ten bottles of B. B. B. I was pronounced well. Hundreds of cases can now be cured, on and I have now been well over twelve months."

A HERE SONG!

That about expresses what we now get for our "own make" Winter Clothing, because we have already pruned the profits clean, and because we are drawing near towards the tail end of the season. What we have left in Suits, Overcoats and Trousers are at the disposal of the people at almost their own price. Persons with a speculative turn of mind will find an opportunity now to buy their next winter's outfit at about the cost of the material. Our New Spring Stock is now complete and ready for inspection.
Buy one of our Elegant Spring Overcoats which we have just made up. They are the very thing you will need for the next three or four months. All colors and all prices.

CHAPTER 128.
AN ACT to amend section 2, article 5, chapter 1534, Common School Law of this Commonwealth.
Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: That section 2, article 5, chapter 1534 be amended by striking out the following words, namely: "The trustees shall not permit any person to teach any private or other school in any district school-house unless the said person shall first have obtained a certificate to teach from the County Board of Examiners," and insert in lieu thereof the following, to-wit: "No person shall be allowed to teach in a private or other school in any district school-house, unless he be of a good moral character, and have the consent of not less than two of the trustees of the district in which said school is to be taught."
2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

The Louisville Market.

There has been no special change in the tobacco market this week. Offerings have continued large and bidding has been free and all grades are taken readily, when sound and sweet, have an active demand, and sell well up to outside figures of our quotations. There is a good, healthy demand for medium flues and smokers. Large lots of all grades are taken readily at quotation. The fancy still seems very much in favor of color, and offerings possessing this quality are eagerly sought for, and usually run up to outside limits of our quotations.
The breaks do not show as much as they have appeared several weeks ago, and whenever a hoghead is offered which can be cleared strictly fine, sweet and sound, no one can guess what price it may go to. The selling side of the market continues the scarcity of fine tobacco now offering as indicating that the supply is about exhausted.
Of dark tobacco we can only say it is no material change. Sound, sweet tobacco of Green River type is steady and strong. Good dark long leaf, sweet and strong, healthy demand. But low grade, out of order and lank grades are still "in the soup." For such there is practically no market.—Farmers Home Journal.

A Sure Hog Cholera Preventive.
J. E. MOORMAN'S
Hog Cholera Preventive
Will prevent the ravages of Cholera on any farm stock, and, in some cases will cure Cholera, although we will not insure it to do so. It has been tried and thoroughly tested by many of the best farmers in Breckinridge and Hardin counties and has never failed. Below are the names of some of our farmers who have tested its merits: John Medler, Dolph Jones, Big Springs; Bob English, Dr. C. A. Odell, Chas. Hardaway, Newkentville. Experience teaches us that Hog Cholera cannot be cured except in rare cases; so this is merely a preventive which, if given according to directions, we warrant to preserve the health of the stock. It is put up in a gallon at 15¢; one penny will keep twenty-five hogs healthy for a year. AGENTS: Bader & Beiler, Hardinburg; G. W. Short, Cloverport; Joe Jones, Rockvale. Manufactured by
J. E. MOORMAN, Owensboro, Ky.
